Prayer

Lord Jesus, you promised before you left us that you would give us peace. Help me today to walk in the peace that you promised. Let your peace override any of my fears, anxieties, or worries and help me to walk in the stillness and comfort of the rest that comes from your peace. I thank you today for your great peace and I face today knowing that you are with me and so is your peace. Amen.

Queen's Jubilee

Here at Liverpool Road Church we're celebrating the Queen's Jubilee on Friday 3rd June from 11am onwards. You are warmly invited to join us for indoor and outdoor activities. Babies through to great grandparents welcome!

Dear Friends

Anxiety and stress can be debilitating, and from time to time we all suffer from it. The causes can be many and varied, a change in circumstances perhaps, a lack of control over future events that results in us catastrophizing.

As disciples of Jesus we can sometimes think we should not have such struggles.

This though is to deny the gospel. Following Jesus' death, the disciples were terrified, so much so they locked the doors of the house they were in, fearful of what the ruling authorities would do to them. Jesus then appears. He knows of their anxiety and stress, grief ridden and worried about what lay ahead. "Peace be with you" he says.

The word for peace used here is 'eiréné' which means one, peace, quietness, or rest. It can also mean wholeness or peace of mind. Jesus uses this word because he wants to settle and calm their emotions. He said the phrase twice in that encounter and again when he appeared a week later to them with Thomas now present.

What might Jesus be speaking into your heart and mind today with the words "Peace be with you?"

Jesus uses peace to address the disciples fear in the here and now. He recognises their fear as real and understandable, he does not undermine it as trivial. He speaks that greeting of peace to them, as he does to us today. Jesus pursued the disciples. They had locked themselves away in fear and Jesus breaks in. Jesus is therefore using his peace with purpose, to seek to move the disciples beyond their immediate predicament and into the future.

Again Jesus said, "Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you."
(John Ch 20 vs 21).

Jesus' peace does not seek to leave us trapped where we are, rather it seeks to support us, in moving us beyond the moment, with Jesus present with us throughout.

I pray that whatever you may be facing, you will know that Jesus is greeting you with the words, "Peace be with you."

God bless
Patrick
